A JOYFUL CHORAL CELEBRATION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

Singing, celebrating and enjoying life – the new international choir festival & competition in Bohol, Philippines combines all pleasures of the „Sing’n’Joy“ event series in a magnificent destination in Southeast Asia.

Bohol, often referred to as „Jewel of the Philippines“, is famous for its Chocolate Hills and the tiny Tarsiers, which exist in this province only. It’s also especially known for historic churches from the Spanish colonization.

Some of them bear the honorary title „national cultural treasure“.

The choir competition of Sing’n’Joy Bohol focusing on Folklore and Religious Music gives national and international participants the chance to compete and sing together in a peaceful contest.

Discover the cultural richness of Bohol, immerse yourself in its warm hospitality, and create musical memories that will last a lifetime! Join us and let your choral voices shine as the region becomes the stage for your personal „jewels of choral music.“
